

Sinclair Broadcast Group has proven that they are not worthy of having a "license" from the FCC. Public opinion cannot be bought and sold in America and it's up to our government to make sure this does not happen.

On every front the average citizen is being put at a disadvantage and lied to. Please review Sinclair's obligations and assure us (the public) that you haven't sold us out again.

Ann-Marie Stillion
annmarie@arttrek.com